HPD Incident #: 178472307-M

Suspect Name: Young, Russell James

Type of Crime: Failure to Comply Warrant

Last Known Address: 2407 North Main (Salvation Army)

Offense: Failure to Comply

On February 2, 1992, Russell James Young, 24 year old at the time of offense in Cowlitz county, Washington, was charged with first degree Child Molestation, which is the equivalent charge of Indecency with a child by contact under Texas Penal Code # 21.11 (a)(1). The victim was an 8-year-old female acquaintance. The suspect was convicted of Child Molestation and received 70 months confinement.

The suspect last registered with HPD Juvenile Sex Offender Registration on November 08, 2006 and stated he would be living at 2407 N. Main, also known as "Salvation Army – Harbor Light Center & Red Shield Lodge." The suspect violated his registration duties for change of address violation and was arrested on December 18, 2006, and was sent to Texas Department of Corrections. On June 15, 2007, upon release the suspect again gave the same address listed above as his place of residence. On December 6, 2007, a compliance check was conducted at the suspect's anticipated address as listed on his Pre-release form with Texas Department of Corrections and it was found that the suspect's last day of residence at 2407 N. Main "Salvation Army" Houston, Texas was on June 21, 2007. The suspect failed to register upon his release from Texas Department of Corrections within seven (7) days of his change of address with the Houston Police Department as a registered Sex Offender. A warrant for Failure to Comply was issued for suspect Russell James Young.
